

WORLD LANGUAGE

CREDIT PROGRAM

Many school districts in Washington now recognize the value of preparing students to be global citizens with the skills to communicate in English and other world languages.

The World Language Credit Program is a way to earn high school credit for a language that you already know.

For more information, contact

Dr. Michele Aoki
World Languages Program Supervisor

Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction

michele.aoki@k12.wa.us

Funding for creation of this brochure was provided by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation Road Map World Language Credit Program grant to the Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The brochure was produced by the Office of the Education Ombudsman.

You can download and print copies of the brochure in English and other languages from:

<http://www.k12.wa.us/WorldLanguages/RoadMap/>

<http://www.waparentslearn.org>

Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction
Old Capitol Building
600 Washington St SE
Olympia, WA 98504

Earn high school credit for a language you already know!

WORLD LANGUAGE CREDIT PROGRAM

HOW DOES IT WORK?

STEP 1: Determine if you're eligible

Do you speak a language other than English?

Can you read and write in it too?

STEP 2: Take the tests

Learn about the tests and sign up at:

[www.k12.wa.us/WorldLanguages/
AssessmentDays.aspx](http://www.k12.wa.us/WorldLanguages/AssessmentDays.aspx)

STEP 3: Get credit

Contact your high school counselor with your test results to add the credits to your school transcript.

That's it!

Languages*

Amharic

Arabic

Chinese

Nepali

Punjabi

Somali

Russian

Spanish

Tagalog

Vietnamese

* For more information and a more complete list of languages go to:

<http://www.k12.wa.us/WorldLanguages/AssessmentDays.aspx>