Allyship Exit Tickets

Name: ___________________________
Date: ______________

Write at least one way you will challenge ableism in your everyday life:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Name: ___________________________
Date: ______________

Draw at least one way you will challenge ableism in your everyday life:
Choose at least one way you will challenge ableism in your everyday life:

A. Correcting my friends and providing alternative language when they use ableist language

B. Telling people to avoid using accessible spaces (e.g., bathroom stalls, parking spots, dressing rooms) if they don’t need them

C. Talking to my parents or teachers if I see spaces that are inaccessible

D. ___________________________________________________________________________